

Upper Income Taxpayers Claim the Most State and Local Tax Deductions

Lawmakers from high-tax states have said that caps on the SALT deduction in the Tax Cuts and Jobs Act of 2017 will cause disproportionate harm to their residents. SALT deductions bring the most benefit to those with high incomes, since they are more likely to itemize their federal deductions and pay more state taxes to write off.

