

Party Control Over State Governments

Over the past decade, Republicans have maintained trifectas in nine states (Arkansas, Florida, Georgia, Idaho, North Dakota, South Carolina, South Dakota, Texas, and Utah), while Democrats have held a trifecta in one (Delaware).

*The Nebraska Legislature is currently the only unicameral and non-partisan state government, and is not included in this graph.